40 DROWNED IN NEW ENGLAND TIDAL WAVE

WOMEN, CHILDREN SWEEPED AWAY BY WALL OF WATER

MOTORBOAT PARTY FINDS DIS- TRESS, TRAGEDY AND CHAOS IN DISTRICT

DAYS BEFORE ACTUAL RELIEF WORK CAN BE GOTTEN UNDER WAY

By J. T. MEANEY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
St. Johns, N. F., Nov. 22.—The complete story of Monday night's devastation by earthquake and tidal wave along the southeastern coast of Burin Peninsula, describing the deaths of women and children swept away by a wall of water which crushed their homes, was brought here by the United Press today by motorboat from Burin.

Preceding many relief vessels converging on the cliff-guarded town, the motorboat visited Burin and the stricken villages along the coast southward. A death toll of 40 was listed as follows:

Burin, 9; Port Aux-Bras, 7; Lamlaine (including Point Aux-Gual), 15; Lord's Cove and Kelley's Cove, 2; and Taylor's Bay, 3.

The motorboat party found chaos, tragedy and distress everywhere. They penetrated along the rocky coast from Burin southward to the village of Lamlaine.

It will be days before actual relief work can get underway. All means of communication—a telephone, cables, telegraph and telephone lines—have been broken by the earth tremor. Homeless and without fuel, the villagers even are without means of communication by boat, the tidal wall of water having swept away hundreds of dories and skiffs.

From eye-witnesses at Burin, a town of 2,500, the most graphic stories of the disaster were obtained. Their stories dated from 5:30 P. M. Monday when the entire peninsula was rocked by the earth tremor. Barely recovering from the earth shock which in itself did considerable damage, the villagers were seated at dinner when the tidal wave, created by the tremor, struck the coast with terrifying force.

The first warning of the disaster was a roar of breaking seas mounting the cliffs which guard the city at the little inlet. The frightened villagers ran from their homes. In the darkness they saw a foam capped wall of water advancing on them like a moving mountain.

Many were paralyzed by fear and could not move with the others in the exodus from the lower sections of the town to the higher points. Children were lost in the panic and many were trapped in their homes as the water crushed the small frame dwellings and carried them back into the sea.

One heroic mother, alone with two children, ran to the street and when she saw the advancing wall of water rushed back to rescue her children. Her dwelling was rapidly filling with water but she waded through the door only to be swept out to sea in the wreckage of the building. Many bodies were found beneath the debris left by the receding waves.

So fast did the wave sweep over the shore that many of those fleeing for safety were overtaken and carried out to sea. Men risked their lives to rescue women and children clinging to wreckage.

The screams of women and children and the voices of half-crazed men yelling through the darkness mingled with the noise of the crashing buildings in a terrifying chaos.

Small boats and schooners, lifted from their anchorage, were dashed upon the shore, crashing against buildings. Piers and wharves were lifted clear from their foundations and hurled with tremendous force against the dwellings on the shore.

The terror of the dwellers was accentuated by screams that the island was sinking. Prayers and entreaties to God mingled with calls for loved ones.

The small town of Port Aux-Bras was completely inundated by the wave and seven lives were lost. Every article of food was destroyed as well as coal and winter supplies.

Four were drowned at Lord's Cove, the victims being Patrick Rainey and his three children. All property along the shore was demolished and provisions and coal lost.

At Lamlaine and the adjacent settlement of Point Aux-Gual, near Lord's Cove, 15 persons perished. Four members of the Hilliers, Walsh families were swept out to sea. Eight persons were killed in the collapse of one building.

Two persons were drowned at Kelley's Cove, three dwellings wrecked and all fishing boats and fishing gear lost.

Residents of most of the towns have organized local relief committees and are undertaking to collect the scant provisions left and administer aid to the most needy.

No estimate of monetary loss was possible. Concern centered only on aiding the injured and sheltering and feeding the victims of the disaster.

DOCTORS FEAR HIS WEAKENED HEART MAY GIVE OUT UNDER STRAIN

Paris, Nov. 22.—(U.P.)—Georges Clemenceau, war time premier of France, clung to life with a precarious hold today, his iron constitution holding out stubbornly against the advance of uremia.

After a night and day of intense suffering, relieved by injection of morphine and camphor oil, to strengthen his heart, the aged man was a little better at 4 P. M. Except for momentary lapses he retained consciousness. His doctors were gravely worried. There was danger that his weakened heart, which survived a critical attack a month ago, might give out under the added strain. Clemenceau suffered great abdominal pain from colic.

The dead, including three women, a child and a man, were: Miss Kitty Cullinan, 42; Mrs. Elizabeth Dawson, 38; Mrs. Annie Cockrell, 41; her two-year-old daughter, Mary Ann Cockrell, and Charles Jacobson, 50. All were from Washington.

Suffering and Hardship Follow Today In Wake of Year's Severest Cold Wave In Central States

SNOW BLANKET COVERS MOST OF WYOMING

UPPER AND SOUTHERN MICHIGAN AND INDIANA RECORD SNOWFALL

THIEF RIVER FALLS REVEALS TEMPERATURE OF 18 DEGREES BELOW ZERO

Chicago, Nov. 22.—(U.P.)—Suffering and hardship followed today in the wake of the severest cold wave of the season in the central and Rocky Mountain states.

Mercury readings plunged to the lowest levels since last winter in a vast area from the Rockies to the Great Lakes and from the Canadian north to Texas. Snow blankets spread by blizzards covered Wyoming and the forest lands of upper Michigan and heavy snows had fallen in southern Michigan and Indiana.

Lowest reported temperatures yesterday were at Thief River Falls, Minn., where it was 18 degrees below zero, and in the Fox Park region in Wyoming, where it was 13 below. It was 10 below at Billings and Great Falls, Mont.

Hunters in the forests of upper Michigan, trapped by the blizzard while encamped awaiting the opening of the 15-day deer season, suffered from the cold and the deep snow.

Ranchers and miners in the Rocky Mountain west, besieged by unprecedented early snows and low temperatures, were combating the bitter cold that settled on the heels of the latest snow.

In the central states, the cold wave, which had its origin in the Mackenzie river basin in Canada, was believed to have reached a climax just before dawn today. It brought zero temperatures to cities in Minnesota and Wisconsin, near zero weather to Chicago, and sub-zero recordings to sections farther west.

St. Paul, Nov. 22.—Relief appeared in sight today for the shivering northwest from the biting winds and sub-zero temperatures of the past two days.

The United States weather bureau here reported slightly warmer temperatures throughout the mid-west at mid-morning and predicted a further rise by nightfall. Snow with rising temperatures was forecast for Minnesota for Saturday.

Thursday's cold snap reached its height at Thief River Falls, Minn., with 18 degrees below zero reported, while Devils Lake, N. D., reported 6 below and Pierre, S. D., 4 below.

Other recordings included Duluth, 10 below; Moorhead, 6 below; Williston, N. D., 10 below, and St. Paul, 6 below.

MUCH CONJECTURE OVER FORD WAGE INCREASE PROMISED

Detroit, Nov. 22.—(U.P.)—Patient expectation was manifest among Henry Ford's army of 90,000 workers here today as they discussed the proposed general wage increase.

Conjecture over the details of the increase, its amount and extent began shortly after news of Ford's proposal stirred the city yesterday afternoon.

Although the announcement occasioned considerable surprise, officials of the Ford Motor company indicated that the matter of a wage increase had been under consideration by Ford for some weeks. It was said, however, that a definite announcement had not been expected at this time.

ANOTHER SNYDER- GRAY CASE SEEMS TO BE UNCOVERED

CONDUCTOR-CLERK WM. J. O'BRIEN WORKED NIGHT AND DAY FOR WIFE

CHICAGO WOMAN AND LOVER PLOTTER HER HUSBAND'S DEATH

Chicago, Nov. 22.—The death of Wm. J. O'Brien, 27-year-old conductor-clerk who worked night and day while his wife and her lover plotted his death, had rounded out another Snyder-Gray case today.

O'Brien died in Holy Cross hospital last night of bullet wounds inflicted by Samuel Dorr, insurance agent and landlord of the Duplex apartment in which the Dorr and O'Briens lived. Dorr admitted that he fired the shots as O'Brien stepped out of a bathroom in his own apartment early Wednesday. The landlord had been in the bedroom of Mrs. Genevieve O'Brien, 26, an expectant mother.

Murder charges probably will be filed against Dorr and Mrs. O'Brien today. Police expressed the belief that the plot Mrs. O'Brien confessed was prompted by a desire to get O'Brien out of the way and collect his $5,000 insurance sold to him by Dorr.

EVANGELIST'S CAR AND BANK ACCOUNT ORDERED ATTACHED

Los Angeles, Nov. 22.—(U.P.)—Almee Semple McPherson's automobile and bank account were attached today, but she hoped to have legal restrictions removed before night.

Frank Timpon, whom she discharged as office manager at Angelus temple, later yesterday complicated the woman evangelist's latest legal difficulties by filing a suit in which he claimed $7,680 was due him by contract and obtained the attachments.

George Acret, attorney for Mrs. McPherson, said that the evangelist did not know of the existence of the contract, which was made by her former attorney, Crowell Ormsby.

The record surpassed by Miss Earhart was 156 miles per hour, made by Mrs. Louise Thaden.

The highest speed attained by the aviatrix today was 197.8 miles per hour. She flew a course which totaled four miles, making two one-mile trips with the wind and two against the wind.

Her plane, a Lockheed-Vega, carried 150 gallons of gasoline and 12 gallons of oil. Miss Earhart kept the craft at an altitude of about 200 feet during the speed trial.

Yesterday Miss Earhart broke Mrs. Thaden's record but the results were not sent to Washington when it was discovered that the clocks used in the timing were inaccurate.

CLAIM LIQUOR WAS "PLANTED" BY OFFICERS

CHICAGO TRIBUNE QUOTES FOR- MER PROHIBITION RAIDER AS MAKING STATEMENT

REFERS TO THE CONVICTION OF MICHIGAN'S 2 "LIFE FOR A PINT" PRISONERS

Chicago, Nov. 22.—(U.P.)—The Chicago Tribune today quoted Frank Eastman, former Lansing, Mich., police prohibition raider, as declaring Michigan's two "life for a pint" prisoners were convicted because liquor was "planted" by officers.

Eastman and his former partner, William Knapp, arrested Fred Palm and Mrs. Elita Mae Miller on the charges that put them in prison for life under the Michigan law providing that penalty on fourth conviction of felony.

Mrs. Miller, the mother of 10 children, was convicted of a third offense after liquor had been placed in the cupboard of her home on Knapp's orders, the Tribune story said Eastman declared. Her fourth conviction, it continued, was obtained on the evidence of a small quantity of liquor obtained from two rubbing alcohol bottles thrown from an automobile in which Mrs. Miller was riding with a man. Eastman himself "planted" a partly filled bottle of gin in one of Palm's boots, the Tribune story said.

The former Michigan patrolman was quoted as saying:
"Knapp and I went to Palm's house to get him for jumping bond in a liquor case. I found a pint bottle partly filled with gin on the floor and dropped it into one of a pair of boots on the back porch. After I got Palm, I recovered the bottle and kidded him about it."

"When we got to the station, Palm was put in a cell and I turned the gin bottle over to the desk sergeant as a matter of course. I thought Palm had been brought in as a fugitive. The next day I heard him pleading guilty to possession of liquor for having the gin I had found in the house. 'So Palm went up for life on that charge we had trumped up on him. We had no right to enter or search his house and we could never have proved the gin was his.'"

The casket, draped in the national colors and banked with scores of floral tributes from men and women in all walks of life, was placed on an artillery caisson. As the cortege, led by artillery troops wearing black arm bands of crepe, left the church, the first gun of the secretary of war's salute of 19 guns boomed out.

71ST CONGRESS TO TAKE A TEN DAY VACATION

FINAL CHASTISEMENT PREPARED FOR FRED I. KENT, WALL STREET BANKER

CALLED TO EXPLAIN CHARGE THAT CONGRESSIONAL ACTIVI- TIES CAUSED STOCK DROP

By PAUL R. MALLON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Washington, Nov. 22.—With a last slap at its critics, the seventy-first congress will adjourn today for a ten day vacation.

The final chastisement was prepared for Fred I. Kent, the Wall Street banker, connected with the Bankers Trust Company. He was called before the senate lobby committee to explain his charge that congressional activities blanketed responsible for the recent precipitation of stock values.

On the senate floor a further airing of sentiments against those who shake Kent's views was expected to be staged by the democrats and independent republicans. It is to be a sequel of the blistering indictment they delivered yesterday against the forces seeking to lay blame upon them.

Aside from these expressions, the closing ceremonies were to be nothing more than routine.

For lack of anything else to do, the senate will proceed with the proposed increase of the duty on wool ranging from 8 cents to 24 cents a pound. A strong fight has been waged around this rate of the tariff bill because of the use of such rugs in cheaper clothing, blankets, underwear and socks.

The senate yesterday restored the house increase on raw wool, fixing the duty at 34 cents a pound, against the 31-cent rate recommended by the finance committee. The vote was 44 to 26, with 36 republicans and eight democrats supporting. Twenty-one democrats and five republicans opposed the increase.

The adjournment resolution, already passed, sets 10 P. M. as quitting time. There being no need to work so late, the senate will unofficially retire from the special session around 5 P. M., sending a few leaders back at 10 P. M. to go through the official adjournment motions, according to present arrangements.

The house has set no hour for adjournment, but its leaders say it will meet for only a few minutes. It has been in session in name only, while the senate was grappling with the tariff bill.

Washington, Nov. 22.—Congressional activities were only partially to blame for the recent tumble of stock market prices, Fred I. Kent, director of the Bankers Trust Company, told the senate lobby investigating committee today.

The contributing factors were the over-issuance of new securities, the capital gains taxes and the spectacular total of brokers' loans, the Wall Street banker told the farm bloc coalition senators on the committee.

"The fact that congress was split into blocs and groups and could not function on the tariff had an effect upon the psychology of business," Kent asserted.

The banker admitted there has been speculation but insisted that speculation was based upon the solid business foundation.

Former democrat Secretary of the Treasury Carter Glass, now senator from Virginia, sat with the committee and entered into the stern questioning of Kent.

"Do you believe that 90 per cent of the transactions are, as the New York Times states, as pure gambling as betting on the turn of an arrow at the roulette table?" Glass asked.

"It is only a matter of opinion, very difficult to see through," was the reply.

"Don't you know that is the universal opinion?"

"Without any question, speculation had something to do with the stock market but it must be backed by good business psychology because no one would buy unless he thought stocks were going up."

Perhaps you too, are planning on buying a radio and like hundreds of others are just "looking around." Perhaps some one has told you this or told you that, about such and such a radio set until you are at a loss to know which radio to buy. Let us give you some facts that may guide you in your buying.

First—Majestic is the leader and in 17 months more than two million homes have been equipped with Majestic Radio Sets. During the past year nearly two hundred homes in Brainerd have been equipped with Majestic Radio Sets. During September and October of this year we made 46 competitive demonstrations against 11 different radio sets and made 39 sales or in other words about 90% of all people who try different makes of radio sets before they buy, choose Majestic.

Second—When you buy a Majestic you buy a radio set that is completely built by one company and is not an assembled set. It is built by the largest exclusive manufacturers of console radio sets in the world.

Third—Majestic has true tone at all frequencies. Majestic has always been sold on its remarkable tone and only Majestic could make improvement, as it has done this year, on the tone. If you have not heard the new Majestic Speaker you have not heard radio.

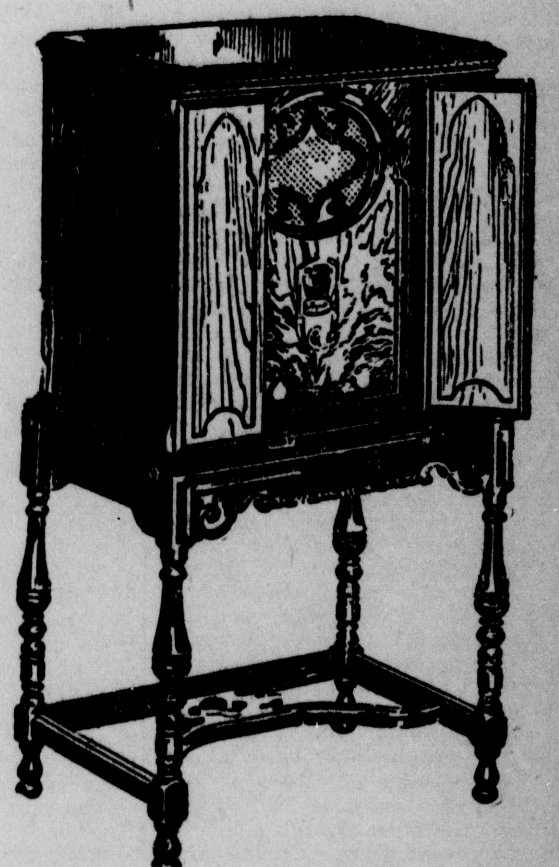

Fourth—When you buy a Majestic you get one year's free radio service day or night and one year's guarantee on all tubes. No other radio dealer gives you the service you get with your Majestic. The fact that we have practically no service on Majestics is the reason we are able to give such wonderful service.

Fifth—We believe that more Brainerd families have purchased Majestic Radio Console Sets this year than all of the other console electric sets combined.

A SCHOOL health survey of St. Paul is being made voluntarily by Dr. Charles H. Keene, professor of hygiene at the University of Buffalo and former director of school hygiene in Minneapolis. The survey will not include general physical examination of children in schools but will be a study of the health problem and methods used in dealing with it.

MANY cities are grouping their various welfare activities solicitation in one community chest effort. Duluth and Minneapolis follow this method. Recently Northfield grouped ten projects in their community chest for which the trustees have set a budget of $2,950.

THE night schools of Virginia are offering gymnasium classes which are directed by competent gymnasts.

Special Meetings M. E. Church

Another increase in attendance at the Methodist church service Wednesday night was appreciated. There is one more night for these special services. Last night the subject was "What Shall we do With the Church?" Special music will be given by the choir. The pastor will be glad to see you.

At the service Wednesday the subject considered was "The Test of a Christian." The speaker suggested that all life is under a test, and certain standards are the measure of all expressions of life.

"Jesus gives us a test by which to measure our discipleship," said the speaker. "If any man would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily, and follow me." To be a Christian involves certain restrictions. Jesus says "Enter ye in by the narrow gate." Concentration is necessary for accomplishment. You cannot go to every place, and say and do everything and be a Christian. There must be a denial of lower self, restraint of passions, refusal of luxury in the surroundings of life to be a Christian. To be a Christian we must bear the cross. Jesus is our example. He turned the cross from a symbol of shame to one of glory. Cross-bearing means surrender of life to another. We are interested in doing the will of God. To be a Christian, we must follow Jesus. Christianity is positive as well as negative. The major sin of today is failure to follow Christ. Following Christ means the learning of things to follow a personality. The value of our expression of Christ is measured by the closeness with which we follow Him."

The closing service of the series will be held tonight at 7:45 o'clock. The theme will be "The Supreme Constraint." Singing will be directed by Fred Lind. The faithfulness of the congregation has been appreciated. A goodly interest has been shown. All are invited to the service tonight.

Last night the speaker had for his subject "What Shall we do With the Church," and said that the church is the depository of the knowledge of Christ. Christians are responsible for passing on this knowledge to the community. We know Christ as teacher, example and savior. The church must build this knowledge into the community life and experience. Certain standards of life are accepted by the church. We must maintain these in our individual lives, and influence community life by these standards. Worship is a conception of the church. Our worship programs must meet the day in which we live. Worship is a combination of the service, and our attitude towards it. The church has a function and task. We are to preach the word, to serve the interests of life. The church has an investment in the community. We are training children and young people in the worth while things of life.

Emerson says "The only path of escape known in all the worlds of God is performance. You must do your work before you shall be released." The church voices its appreciation to the Dispatch for the publicity given to these services.

COON-SKIN COATS OUT FOR THE GOPHER-BADGER GAME

COLD BITTER CLASSIC PLAYED

TOMORROW

FINAL GAME OF DISCOURAGING
SEASON FOR BOTH TEAMS

WEATHER MAY BE PAINFULLY
COLD, BUT BATTLE TO BE JOYFULLY HOT

By HECTOR PERRIER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Minneapolis, Nov. 22.—The boys and girls at the university shook the moth-balls out of their coon-skin coats, gashes and fur mitts today and made ready to witness the cold, bitter classic tomorrow between Minnesota and her neighborly rival, Wisconsin.

It was to be the final game of rather a discouraging season for these two teams but the past was forgotten by 50,000 fans who knew that while the weather might be painfully cold, the battle before them was bound to be as joyfully hot as anyone could desire.

Both Dr. Clarence W. Spears and Glen Thistlethwaite strove with all they had within them to win this final game for a victory would obliterate part of the red marks chalked up on their report cards earlier in the fall. There was no question but that the squads were on a dead par as far as strength was concerned and each was weakened by the same amount of injuries.

The so-called sport experts insisted that Minnesota must be given a slight edge but an unbiased comparison of the two teams, man for man, actually makes Wisconsin the favorite.

Dr. Spears expected to throw into his starting line-up two men at least—Win Brockmeyer, halfback, and Clarence Munn, tackle—who because of injuries could not be counted upon to carry their full load and who may go only a small part of the route and that in a weakened condition.

Thistlethwaite had his crimples, too, but where he had strong, capable reserves to rush into their places, Spears had comparatively few and none too experienced substitutes to make his replacements.

Minnesota will not altogether lack for power behind the line for one Bronko Nagurski is destined to play his last game for the Gophers at the fullback post and the great "Pulverizing Pole" may be counted on to hang up a performance that will linger in the minds of the fans long after the score is forgotten.

The remainder of the starting line-up is much the same that appeared before other Big Ten foes this year except that Brockmeyer may be held for a critical moment and rushed in for a potentially touchdown run.

Nagurski is likely to be assisted in the ball-carrying department by Clint Reibeth, Bill Brownell and Art Phamer.

On the line will be Bob Tanner and Harold Anderson, ends; Clarence Munn and George Langenberg, tackles; Les Pulkrabeck and Wayne Kakeala, guards, and Bert Oja, center.

PURDUE, BIG 10 CHAMPS, PLAY INDIANA TOMORROW

IS ONLY GAME BETWEEN THEM AND UNDEFEATED YEAR

BOILERMAKERS HAVE ASPIRA-TIONS FOR CLAIM TO NA-TIONAL TITLE

WILL PROBABLY CLAIM IT IF THEY GET OVER INDIANA OBSTACLE

By BERT DEMBY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Bloomington, Ind., Nov. 22.—Purdue's Boilermakers, champions of the Big Ten this year, will play Indiana tomorrow in the only game which remains between them and an undefeated season.

The Boilermakers already have clinched the Big Ten title but they have aspirations for a claim to the national title which they probably will claim if they get over the Indiana obstacle.

Indiana always plays its best game against Purdue but if the Indiana showing up to now is to be taken as a criterion, the Hoosiers will have to play much better than their best to get a victory tomorrow.

Purdue has one of the best teams in the midwest, if not in the country. Boasting probably the greatest backfield since the four horsemen worked for Notre Dame, the Boilermakers haven't encountered anyone yet who could keep them from scoring.

All year, the Boilermakers have been handicapped by the weight of other teams but they have offset this with superior speed and judgment. They have a versatile outfit and twice when their running game was stopped, Harmon merely stepped back and started throwing passes and gathered in enough points to win.

Indiana has been the nightmare of the Big Ten. The team first lost to Chicago and then surprised everyone by tying Ohio State and winning from Northwestern.

Coach Jimmy Phelan was worried slightly today about injuries to his linemen. Red Sleight, one of the best tackles in the middle west, was suffering from an injured shoulder and George Van Bibber and Lewis Miller, two other linemen, were carrying painful bruises but all were expected to get into the game if they are needed.

Approximately 30,000 fans, capacity for the Indiana Stadium, will see the game.

Illinois and Ohio State will meet at Columbus. The Illini have improved as the season has advanced and probably will win from the Ohio team which has won two games, tied one, and lost one, the same record held by Illinois.

Wisconsin will play Minnesota and figures to lose.

Michigan meets Iowa and with an improved team appears to have a chance against the Hawkeyes. However, the Wolverines will have to play better than they have played so far to win.

Chicago will meet the University of Washington, and showing nothing in particular so far, the Maroons, out-weighted ten pounds to the man in the line, don't figure to win.

WHITE EAGLE BRINGS OUT NEW WINTER GAS

The White Eagle Oil and Refining Company, is today introducing a new specially refined motor fuel, marketed under the name of White Eagle Hi-Test Ethyl gasoline.

The evolution of this new gasoline is an interesting commentary on the progress of automobile engines. Ethyl fluid, developed by the General Motors Research Laboratories, was added to White Eagle gasoline last spring to meet the demands of the popular high-compression motor.

It was discovered by the White Eagle Laboratories, however, that the addition of Ethyl did not serve to meet all the winter needs of the modern automobile. A quick-starting feature was also demanded—and the White Eagle Company set about to perfect a gasoline which satisfied this need, too.

White Eagle Hi-Test Ethyl is the result. This is a fuel particularly conducive to quick starting in cold weather. That the new blend is a White Eagle product is especially interesting to the middle-west since the White Eagle Company is a mid-western concern, owned and operated by residents of the central United States.

RETURN BOUT FOR STRIBLING AND CARNERA

London, Nov. 22.—(U.P.)—Promoter Jeff Dickson is negotiating for a return bout between W. L. (Young) Stribling, American heavyweight, and Primo Carnera, Italian giant, under a contract which specifies that if either man is disqualified on a foul his share of the purse will be given to charity.

Stribling, who lost to Carnera on a foul at Albert Hall Monday night, is reported to have signed for the return bout to be staged in Paris early in December. Leon See, Carnera's manager, is said to be willing to sign the proposed contract, but is awaiting final settlement of terms before definitely postponing Carnera's departure for America.

It's time to CHANGE to winter grades

WINTER

Is your car ready? Three steps are necessary to put your car in shape to meet the heavy demands of cold weather driving.

- 1—Change the lubricant in the differential and transmission, using Polarine Transmission Oil (Winter) or Iso-Vis Lubricant (B).
- 2—Have the chassis thoroughly greased.
- 3—Flush the crankcase with Polarine Flushing Oil and refill with winter grade of either Iso-Vis or Polarine recommended for your car.

For quick service
use air mail

These three steps are vital to the good conduct and smooth operation of your car this winter.

Iso-Vis and Polarine meet every winter need. They maintain their viscosity and lubricate thoroughly at any operating temperature. They're highly refined and scientifically correct for all motors.

If you use Polarine—drain the crankcase every 500 miles for maximum efficiency and economy. If you use Iso-Vis, the constant viscosity oil—you can drive a thousand miles or more without changing, for Iso-Vis wears and wears and wears.

W. C. T. U. CONDUCTS SCHOOL OF METHODS

Sub-District Meeting in Session All Day at First Baptist Church

STATE PRESIDENT SPEAKER

Session Last Night Incurred Talks by Notables in the State Organization

Delegates registered at the sub-district institute of the Fifth District W. C. T. U. held at the First Baptist church Thursday included the following:

Mrs. Josephine Sizer, Minneapolis, state president of the W. C. T. U.; Mrs. E. E. Town, St. Cloud; Mrs. R. E. Snell, Mrs. Maggie McPherson, Mrs. Vane Jones, Mrs. Rebecca Michaelson, Pine River; Mrs. Ira Lamb, Mrs. A. F. Sampson, Mrs. S. Waite, Motley; Mrs. A. C. Erickson, Mrs. H. W. Grondin, Mrs. G. E. Senn, Mrs. Henrietta Fox, Mrs. H. E. Anderson, Mrs. John Erickson, Mrs. Nettie Temple, Brainerd; Mrs. Fred Trimble, Bemidji; Mrs. H. E. Barrett, Mrs. Nellie Emmerson, of Staples.

Principal speakers at the meeting last evening were Mrs. E. E. Town of St. Cloud, district president, and Mrs. Sizer.

"The worst pessimist is the one who says that things are alright. The best optimist is the one who says that matters can be bettered," said Rev. F. A. Kufus yesterday. "For too long the liquor traffic has kept the man trying to climb out of the cellar. What can a man accomplish when the restrictions of liquor traffic are removed and he comes out of the basement into the better lighted, more beautiful living rooms? The world is better. This is the best day the sun ever shone on. Every Christian must believe that. Faith and vigilance are needed in law enforcement."

Mrs. Sizer announced plans for the organization of ten additional unions, bringing the total to 20 unions in the ten districts of the state. She stated that with each union organized in the district she would conduct work for the organization of the other.

She stressed the organization of the Loyal Temperance Legion and the Young People's Branch especially the former which she stated was the more important as it had been responsible for the progress of many individuals.

Mrs. Ella Boole announced national plans whereby each union purchase $10 in literature to be distributed by churches. She further announced that whereby the national organization had set aside one day as a self denial day, the state planned to devote a week for self-denial. She further announced the establishment of May Day as a day of prayer with a special May Day breakfast for new members.

Her closing remarks were: "Thank the Lord for Herbert Hoover. God will help us to hold what we have gained."

Mrs. Town gave a report last evening of her visit to the national convention at Indianapolis, Ind. Mrs. Sizer summarized the liquor traffic, stating that such traffic has existed for 300 years but that much had been accomplished in the past ten years. She said she was very optimistic concerning the future of the 18th amendment.

Mrs. Maggie McPherson, Brainerd, was presented with a certificate of life membership in the organization for her long time and active membership. The presentation was made by Mrs. Sizer.

Principals of four schools in the city gave short talks at the dinner meeting. They were Miss Mary Tornstrom, Miss R. Mabel Williams, Miss Alta Franklin and Miss Louise Barrett.

At last evening's meeting Mrs. Helen Grondin read from her Bible specially published for the use of the blind.

Surprise Shower
A surprise shower was held yesterday afternoon on Mrs. Albin Palmquist of West Brainerd. About 25 friends and neighbors gathered for the afternoon, which was spent socially, followed by a lunch. Mrs. Palmquist was presented with a number of lovely gifts.

THE SMALL popovers turn out better because the oven heat bakes the small quantity of batter much more evenly than it could a large amount.

And there is no other way to roast coffee as evenly as that originated and patented by Hills Bros. By a continuous process that controls the flavor, only a few pounds at a time pass through the roasters. No bulk-roasting method can produce such matchless

You get every bit of the aroma, flavor and strength developed by Controlled Roasting, because Hills Bros. pack their coffee in vacuum tins.

Mrs. Lillian Glen, Ironton, Must Also Pay Fine of $250

HER SECOND OFFENSE

Two Others Plead Guilty and an Alleged Brainerd Bootlegger Arrested

Mrs. Lillian Glen of Ironton received the heaviest sentence of any of the 17 bootleggers and operators of beer and tippling parlors on her plea of guilty in district court before Judge Graham Torrance today.

Judge Torrance explained that the sentence was imposed because it was her second conviction of the sale of intoxicating liquor. She was sentenced to six months in the county jail, to pay a fine of $250 with an additional sentence of 60 days if the fine is not paid.

Mrs. James Folos of Crosby was sentenced to 30 days, fined $150 and sentenced to 60 days additional if the fine is not paid. She pleaded guilty to the charge of sale of intoxicating liquor.

Thomas Hanson, Cross Lake, who pleaded not guilty to the charge of sale of liquor requested to change his plea yesterday. He was sentenced by Judge Torrance to 30 days in jail, fined $150 and ordered to serve 60 days additional if the fine is not paid.

Louis Bedore, Brainerd, was arraigned in municipal court this morning and held to district court on bonds of $500 charged with sale of intoxicating liquor.

All cases were presented in court by County Attorney Arthur J. Sullivan.

REDUCING DIETS MUST HAVE BULK

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN Adds Bulk to a Diet Without Adding Weight to the Body

Doctors everywhere are warning against the recent trend toward strenuous diets for weight reducing.

Many of these new diets are serious in their consequences. Because they lack roughage, constipation occurs. The first symptoms are dizziness, weakness and sallow complexion. Unless corrected, the whole system suffers. Health and beauty are stolen.

By including Kellogg's ALL-BRAN in a reducing diet, you keep fit as you take off weight because you prevent constipation.

ALL-BRAN does not add fat to the body. It just sweeps your intestines clean of poisonous wastes. No pills nor drugs can play the part of ALL-BRAN in a reducing diet.

You will like the appetizing, nut-sweet flavor of ALL-BRAN. Eat it in clear soups. On salads. Soaked in orange, prune or fruit juice. As a cereal with milk or cream. Delicious with honey added. Just eat two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases of constipation with every meal.

Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. Served in hotels, restaurants, dining-cars. Sold by all grocers.

Just like MONEY in the bank

Two major qualities of the Pontiac Big Six—its reliability and long life—offer motorists a definite cash advantage which is just like money in the bank. For not only do these qualities effect big savings in the cost of operating every Pontiac . . . but in addition they increase still further the demand for used Pontiacs. And that means that the Pontiac Big Six you buy today will have a high resale value when you are ready to turn it in.

Pontiac has many other important qualities to offer you. It has the highest top speed, fastest acceleration and the greatest power to be found in any low-priced six. It offers more style in its bodies by Fisher—and more safety in its non-squeak, dirt-and-weather-proof internal four-wheel brakes. And as for Pontiac economy, a large corporation operating 996 automobiles of 33 different makes found the operating cost of their Pontiacs during 1928 to be one cent a mile less than that of any other low-priced six.

THE MASKED HOSTESS

CHAPTER XVII

She bathed and dressed without the assistance of the maid, for she had determined that she would not permit any of the servants in the house to see her without her mask. He was in riding clothes. A groom was walking his horse outside the house. He looked fresh and hand-some and smart and friendly as he snapped to his feet. He explained at once that he was dining elsewhere (Continued tomorrow)
